

P., and is an active member in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Mattoon, being Superintendent of the Intermediate Department of its Sunday School.

KINNAW, Edward R., retired, Mattoon, Ill., was born in Ireland July 23, 1837, the son of Thomas and Margaret (Connell) Kinnaw, natives of Ireland, who came to the United States in 1848, settling first in New York. Later they moved to Wisconsin and died there. The subject of this sketch received his education in Rochester, N. Y., and in 1857 enlisted in the United States Navy, where he served three years. After the breaking out of the Civil War, in August of 1861, he enlisted in Company A, Second New York Cavalry, remaining in service until his discharge in December, 1864, when he immediately re-enlisted and served until the close of the war, his term of service thus covering the entire period of the war. In 1890 he came to Mattoon, Ill., and for a period of twelve years was engaged in railroading, but is now spending a retired and peaceful life.

On March 21, 1866, Mr. Kinnaw was united in marriage to Catherine, daughter of John and Nancy Daily, natives of Ireland, who emigrated at an early day to the United States and located in Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Kinnaw have been the parents of five children, two of whom are now living: Charles E. and Anna M.

Mr. Kinnaw is a Republican in his political views, and in religious affairs is a follower of the Golden Rule.

KING, William H., proprietor of the Mattoon Planing Mill, Mattoon, Ill., was born in Petersburg, Pike County, Ind., January 4, 1842, the son of Marcus and Roxanna King. Until he was eighteen years of age the subject of this sketch remained at home, receiving his education in his native country, after which for one year he taught school. In 1862 he enlisted at Petersburg, in the Twenty-seventh Indiana Volunteer Regimental Band, and served for one year. His attention being drawn to carpentry, he engaged in this work, and for four years was employed at Evansville, Ind., in the planing mill there. He was likewise at Olney, Ill., for three years as contractor, and in the planing mill. In July, 1898, he located at Mattoon, Ill., and is now one of the proprietors and general manager of the Mattoon Manufacturing Company.

On September 30, 1862, Mr. King was united in marriage to Mahala, daughter of Melaciah and Lydia Merrick, of Petersburg, Ind., and to them have been born three children: Nettie (deceased), Lillie and Laura. In his political views Mr. King is a Republican. He is a member of the Masonic order and of the A. O. U. W., and belongs to the Presbyterian Church.

KINZEL, Fred A., lawyer, Mattoon, Ill., was born in city of Mattoon, July 2, 1875, the son of Fred W. and Mary (Herbstreit) Kinzel, natives of Germany, the father coming from the province of Pozen, and the mother from Wurtemberg. In the early 'fifties Mr. Kinzel, Sr., came from the old country, to be joined in 1863 by his family, who now reside in Mattoon.

The subject of this sketch received his primary education in the city schools, later taking a course at the State University, and reading law with Mr. I. B. Craig, thus fitting himself for admittance to the bar, which was granted him in the fall of 1899. Shortly afterward he was admitted to partnership with Mr. Craig.

Mr. Kinzel is attorney for The People's Building and Loan Association of Mattoon. In his political views he is a Democrat and belongs to the Order of Elks.

KITCHENS, Asbury, retired farmer, Mattoon, Ill., was born January 23, 1843, in Clark County, Ill., the son of Ephraim E. and Elizabeth (Lockhart) Kitchens, who came from Tennessee in 1835 to settle in Clark County, Ill., whence they removed to Coles County in 1859, where Mr. Kitchens was employed in general farming and stock-raising until his retirement. At present he is the owner of 120 acres of land in North Okaw Township, besides city property in Mattoon.

On September 7, 1867, Mr. Kitchens was united in marriage to Nancy E., daughter of Lowrey Haskins, of Coles County. Two children were born of this union: Maria E. and Susan L. Their mother died in February, 1876. November 25, 1880, Mr. Kitchens married Mrs. Louisa Heron, daughter of Thomas Gaddis of Kentucky. In his political sentiments Mr. Kitchens is a Prohibitionist. For twenty years he served as School Director and for nine years as School Trustee of North Okaw Township. He is a member and deacon of the Missionary Baptist Church at Cook's Mills.